Reminiscing...

A Year of Activity

The People

A necessary fragment of campus life . . . a positive, progressive instance . . . a concrete example of understanding aid . . . a chronic sequence of interruptions . . . an overwhelming accumulation of minor tasks involving efficiency, persistence, and interest . . . a never-ending flow of "May I Help You's" . . .

Those Whose Assistance Was Often

We Knew...

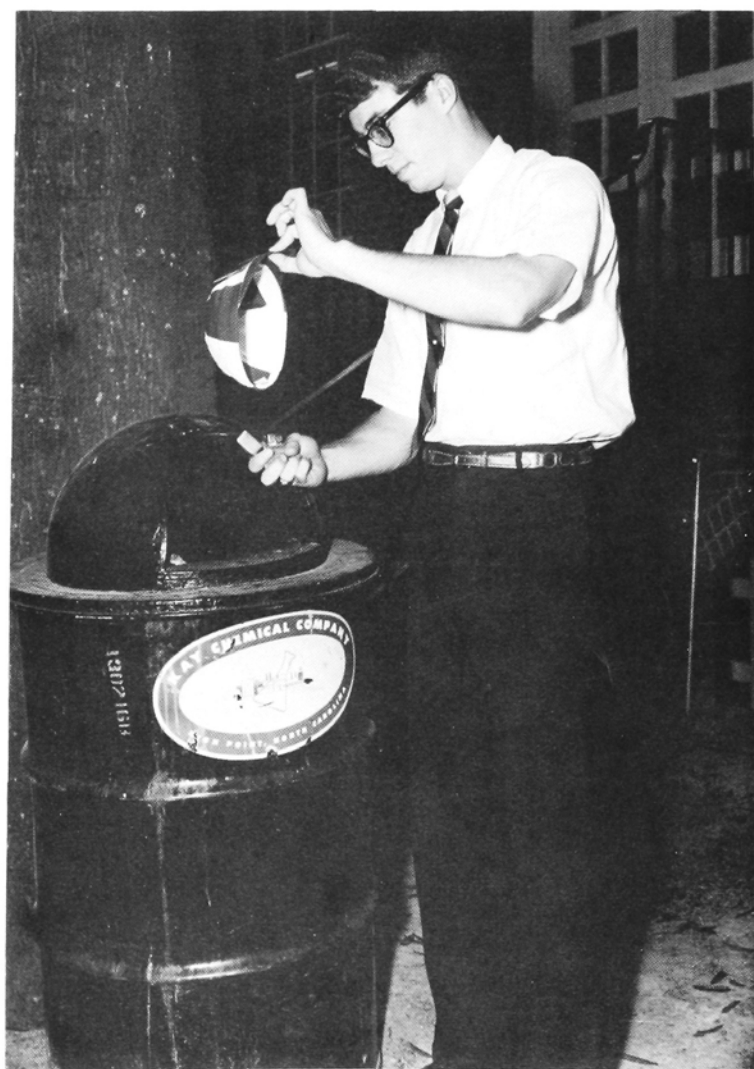

Needed, Seldom Noticed . . .

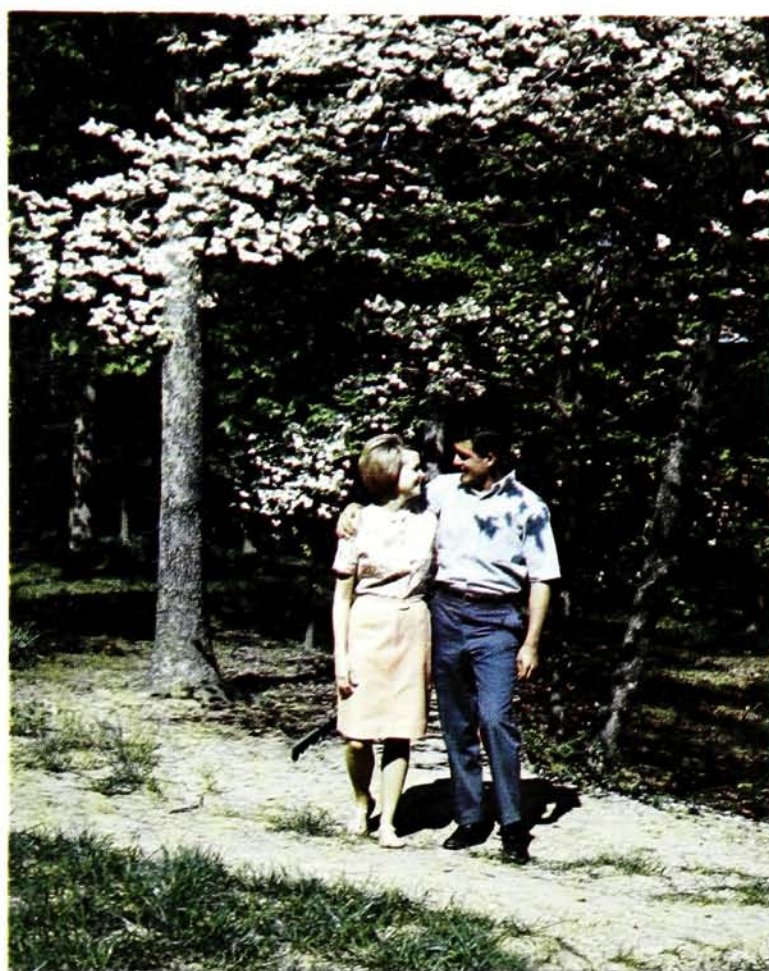

A concoction of varying personalities, unified through common experience . . . a myriad maze of roomies, rushees, scholars, athletes, agnostics, precursors, peers . . . a miniature hamlet whose inhabitants perceive, inquire, and—eventually—suffice themselves . . .

Those Who Shared An Awareness

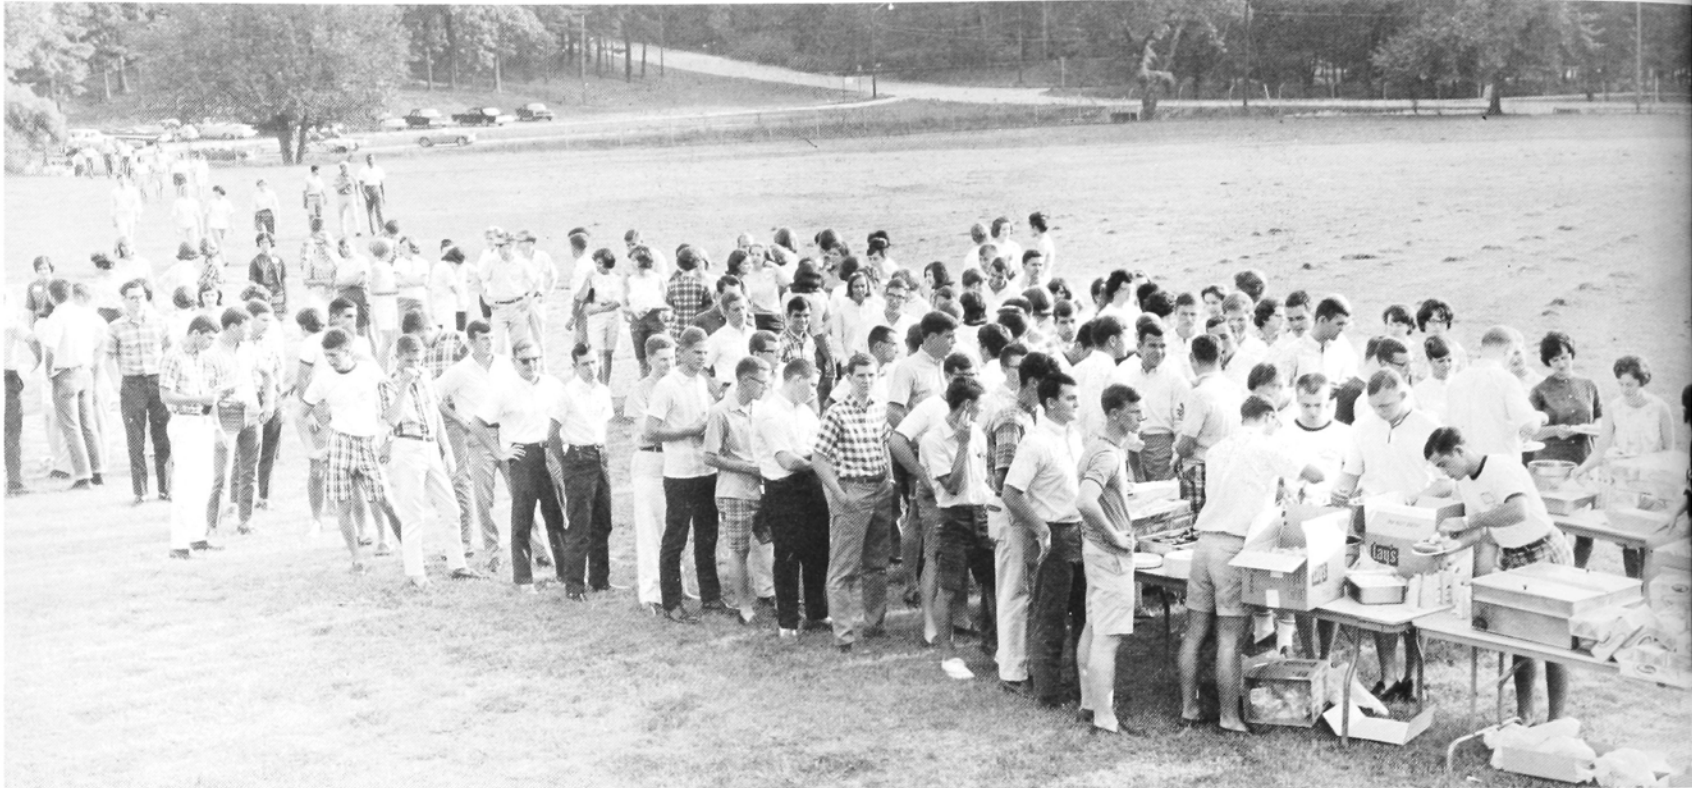

Of The College Community . . .

The Things

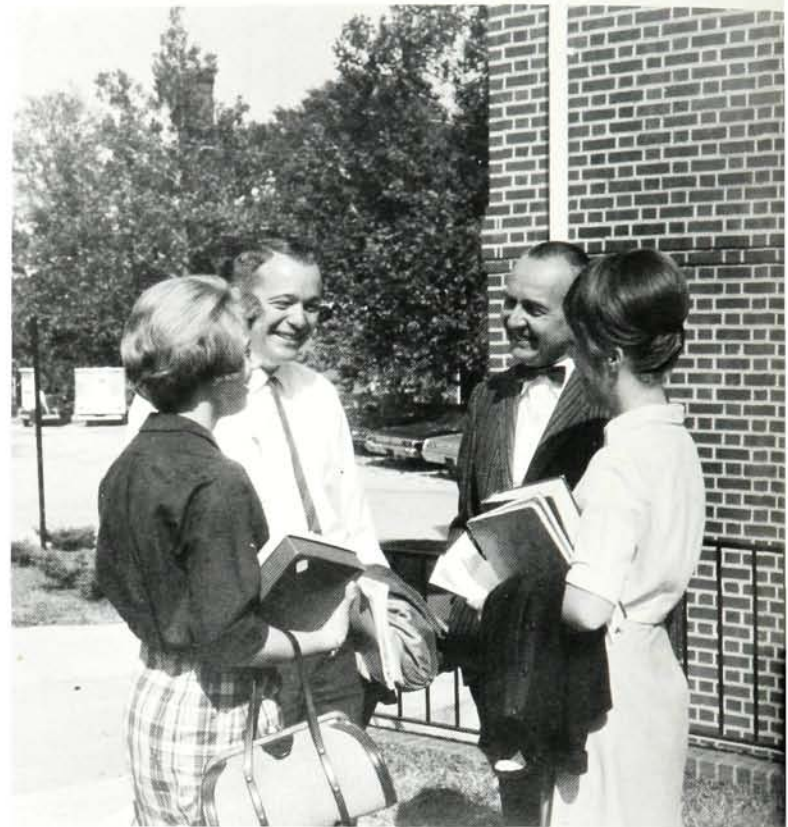

A chronological pattern infiltrated with daily duties, momentary involvements, and split-second attentions . . . discussion, depression, and demerits . . . theme and theocracy . . . ballgames and Busy Officials . . . laughter, laundry and endless lines . . . solitude, Sunday steaks, and serenades . . . fraternity, futility, and foreign policy . . . drag parties, daffodils, and NoDoz . . . antithesis, analysis, and assembly . . . seminar, socialization, and statistics . . . melodrama, mail, and monetary debt . . . "An unfound door" succumbing to incentive, motivation, and participation . . .

We Did...

Those activities offering physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual development—arousing a sense of self and surroundings...

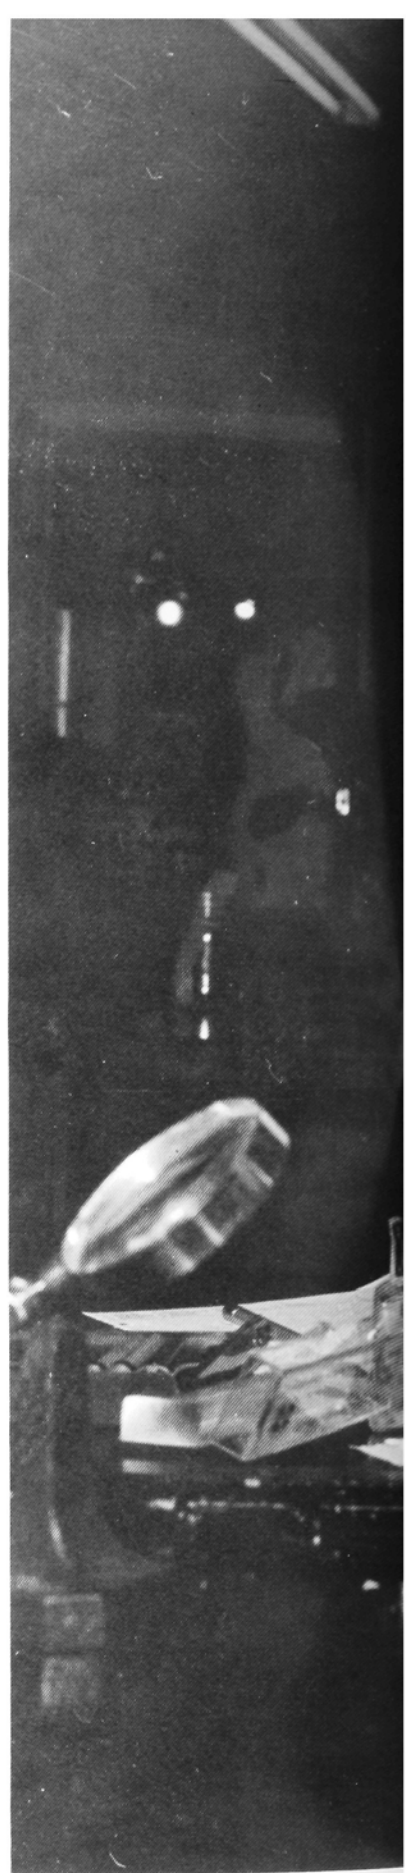

"Who learns by Finding Out has seven-fold the skill of him who learned by Being Told."

President of High Point College

Dr. Wendell M. Patton

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1966

*Dr. Patton Welcomes the Freshmen
As Part of Orientation Week.*

As my parting message, may I share with you a favorite passage from Philipians 3:13:

".....one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark"

For years you have been pressing toward a "mark", but these goals and objectives become pale and insignificant when compared to those you must now set for yourself as you truly face a complex and contradictory world. While past mistakes must be relegated to the past, the learning which should have accompanied those mistakes must be retained and remembered. The basic tools of learning are now yours and it is my hope and prayer that you never lose sight of the necessity of continuing an education just begun. Face every opportunity and circumstance with an open heart, open mind, and open spirit - and you will profit and grow from every life experience.

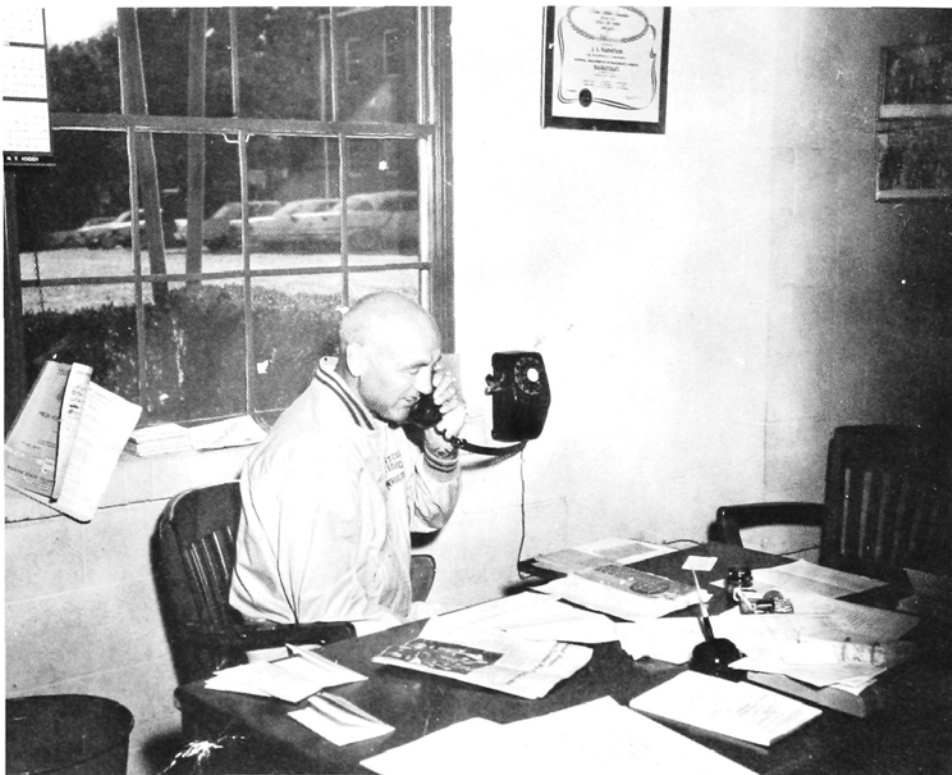

God be with you and keep you.

Wendell M. Patton

With Pride We Dedicate The 1966 Zenith.

Seldom does one find within the confines of a single personality the unbeatable combination of remarkable physical stamina, competent teaching ability, and genuine interest in the college student that characterize Dr. James T. Hamilton, also known as "Pappy." His boundless energy, pleasing sense of humor, and knowledge of athletics serve to enhance the connotation of "coach" at High Point College. One finds asserting the prevalence of instruction over performance difficult, but Dr. Hamilton himself is active in most sports activities here on campus and tends to excel in his participations. Before coming to High Point College in 1960 as Director of Health, Physical Education, and Athletics, he became an outstanding basketball player and produced other cagers of notable ability; among other numerous accomplishments is his membership to the NAIA's Hall of Fame. We salute his contributions to the campus and community, and for his excellence as a coach, as a contender, as an instructor, and as an individual, we dedicate the 1966 ZENITH to Dr. James T. Hamilton.

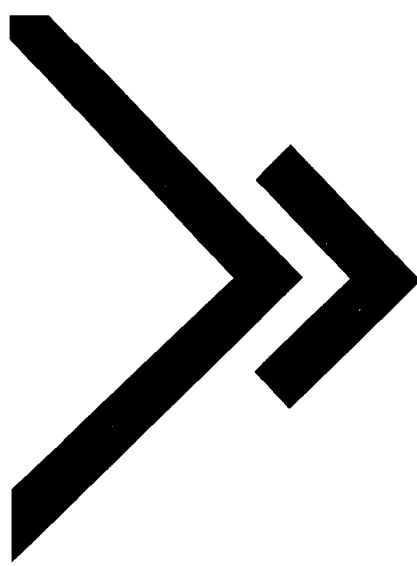

One of the many telephone calls that Dr. Hamilton makes during the day...

A sense of humor is an asset in dealing with High Point College students.

Dr. James T. Hamilton
Professor of Physical Education, Health, and Athletics

Academic Life At High Point College Has Both Its Serious And Light Moments...

Even the good Dean catches forty winks between classes.

The Finch Lecturer and Joe Luther discuss problems of the college student of today.

The conferring of an honorary degree is a highlight of any academic year.

Imagine the size foot that goes with this "profossiliferousanoris" dinosaur's toe!

A "square table" discussion is vital in twentieth century education.

All I hear is complaints, complaints . . .

". . . And just add this bone here and we will have a fully constructed elephant's knee cap."

According to my observations, the bookstore is closed.

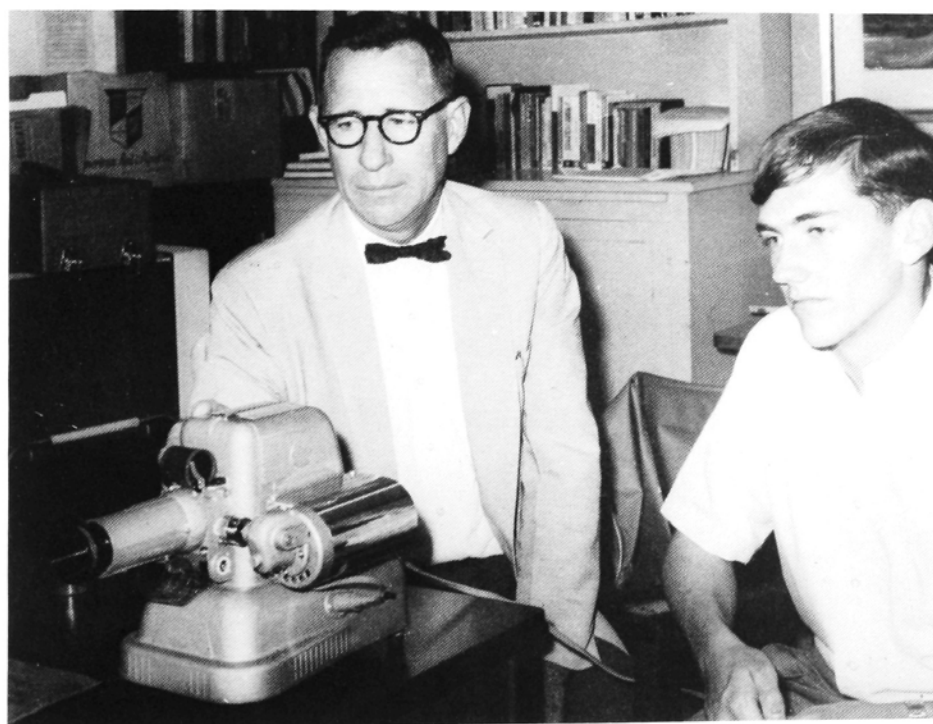

Planning assures a better Fine Arts curriculum.

"Yes, as a matter of fact, my team did have 43% fewer cavities . . ."

"Stag films" are in this year . . .

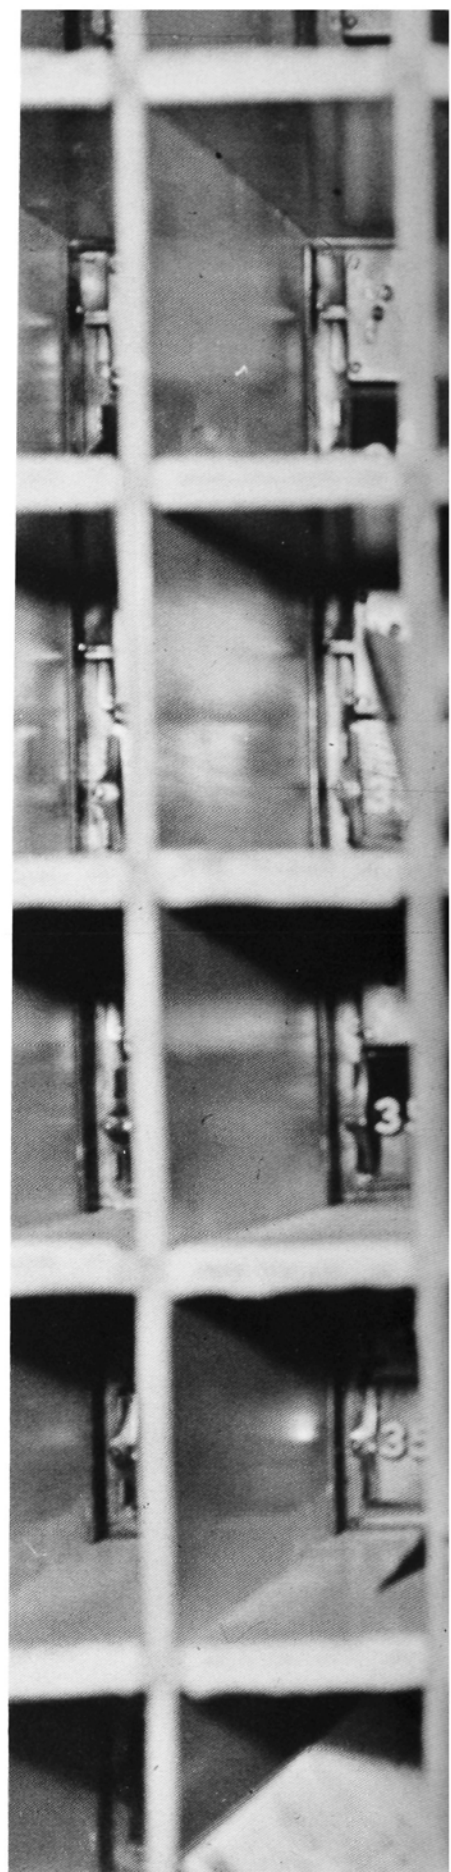

The Golden Decade begins with a formal dinner and the introduction of Miss Golden Decade contestants.

*. . . lowliness is young ambition's ladder,
Whereto the climber-upward turns
his face,
But when he once attains the upmost round,
He then unto the ladder turns his back . . .*

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Pi Kappa Alpha announces a new song, "Jerry Come Lately" . . . It will be sung by Bob H. and his new housekeeper . . . A new card game using rats has been inspired by the Brow . . . Along the line sports we can always find Nobbie at Broadway anytime . . . Super D. loves the sports photographers . . . Dove loves to go home to drive his girl's purple car . . .

This summer Larry One Lung will be at driving school . . . Roooody will be giving language lessons . . . Batman will be feeding the fish while Stevie and Mrs. Long will be hunting alligators . . . Also we'll find Jaw Reid picking peaches and George B. making trips to W. C. with his pet skunk . . . Georgie Milward will be traveling on the M. O. Railroad in search of a duckbill Platypus . . .

Hootman and Butterball will be "all" round good guys as usual . . . Lud the D. J. will be down at Arthur Murray's teaching dancing . . . Phil will remain his usual trouble-free self while Blake will be getting a new car to carry him to the pastures . . .

Sattelli man will try to be on time for dates while Chuck cleans the corner of the room . . . Hell man will take lessons in using extension cords and Lemuel was nominated the most industrious pledge . . . By the way Prune finally bit the dust! . . .

And now while The Weasel and Stod are still asleep, we'll close for this year and head for the beach . . .

"Will someone please explain this year to Little Mike" . . .

...And then there's THE THINKER...

THETA CHI

Shortly before the Civil War, Theta Chi Fraternity was born on the Norwich University campus. Since then Theta Chi has become known for its vigorous pursuit of its ideals and policies.

Theta Chi tradition has been upheld on this campus for more than a decade by the brotherhood of Epsilon Alpha Chapter. In search for a good daily life and strong brotherhood bonds, Theta Chis may often be found at the bookstore discussing the sobering affairs of the world. Pursuing athletic competition on the intramural field . . . Often found in the winner's circle . . . A confident team . . . Always working ahead to get the job done quickly . . . Meetings and discussions lasting long into the night . . . Born in a war period, Theta Chi has become used to all forms of struggle. In the struggle for existence and growth, as well as prominence and glory, Epsilon Alpha is winning . . .

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

Put twenty-six Alpha Gams together and what happens? A lot of fun, plenty of songs, bull sessions — all resulting in close friendships that bring us through the good times as well as the bad ones. 1965-1966 was a year full of all these things. It started off with open arms and welcome smiles after summer vacations. Fall saw rush which ended with twenty-six wonderful pledges. Then came winter and spring with initiation, parties, the Rose Ball, and finally the beach.

A look at the past year unfolds many memories . . . Roberts and the diamond . . . Clod and Judy beat June to the altar . . . Weasel's on-the-spot weather report . . . Just ask Granny about her back . . . Ellen in love?

. . . Louise's foggy eyes and Abbott's foggy world . . . B. Moody always on the go . . . Fruitdoor and Ann dressed in the shower curtain . . . Our Petunia's nurds . . . Dawn and her echoing typewriter . . . Wanda and Tamara with the Nestle's spray can . . . Jackson's men . . . Kathy and Sharon get the Q. P.'s . . . Jean and Debbie vs. second Wesley . . . Cathy Cline's and Bev's roses . . . Domestic Gruder and her sewing machine . . . Betty's "Jurry" . . . Emilie's reason for her demerits . . . Bobbi's between GC and HPC . . . Then there's the pledges . . . Their lost beds . . . Lipstick on the sister's mirrors . . . Happies . . . All of these . . . Memories and friendship, the things that make us one . . .

KAPPA DELTA SORORITY

Kappa Delta Sorority — A group of college women bound in friendship throughout their lives. Working and playing together under the open motto "Let us strive for that which is Honorable, Beautiful, and Highest." A theme which was shared by our founders in 1897 at Longwood College, Farmville, Virginia . . .

A Kappa Delta is active on campus; she is the composite of every college woman. Sherry Snow as "Miss Golden Decade" . . . Omegia Waldrep, first runner-up . . . Diane Holt, "Miss Congeniality" . . . Then it was February and Homecoming . . . Homecoming Court . . . Julie DeGooyer, Madeline Anderson, Delaine Jurney,

PHI MU

1965-66 — what a year for Gamma Zeta Chapter of Phi Mu! . . . Sisters returned in the fall from the summer of fun at the beach, summer school, camping, or working — all bubbling with enthusiasm for the coming year . . . Artie added her “sparkle” — what a diamond! Dimney, Peggy, Betty Pat, and Mary Rachel take the famous “ride” . . . RUSH-RUSH-RUSH — This was the slogan as we prepared for the parties . . . ANGIE! Not another workshop! . . . Only 5,793 more dots to paint on the clowns . . . Well, Tillie, better start looking for a big tent and a big field! . . . How did your pony like the waxed floor, Betty Pat? . . . Lots of work — but what a reward—twenty-five WONDERFUL pledges . . . Say P. D., what are you going to do in your spare time? . . .

The semester moves on — Gainor tries her talents in the chemistry lab . . . Did anybody say brains? Jean, Susan, and Stoney attain the rank of Marshal . . .

Frankie pinned to a Phi Mu . . . Alpha?? Has anyone seen Arming-toes? . . . Take it easy, Claudia; the books HAVE to balance . . . Our Hawaiian Pledge Dance (i. e. “The Night the Hut Fell”) was quite a success . . . Embarrassed much, sisters? . . . It’s about the screw, Susan . . . Sylvia makes a funny . . .

Christmas comes and with it a wonderful party for sisters and pledges . . . Jill leaves for her home with her “Noel” . . . Then exams — Cram Cram . . . Everyone struggles for that average . . . Gerry finally in the dorm . . . Susan travels “cross country” by bus . . . Let’s have an anatomy quiz, Sharon . . . Hey, Lynn, we can always visit the funeral home! . . . Lou-Lou, where’s your pin? . . . Not AGAIN!!!

Spring comes around — Homecoming and Greek Week . . . Myra hands over the gavel and a new council begins work . . . Spring banquet . . . A year filled with enthusiasm, tears, laughter . . .

ZETA TAU ALPHA

After a summer of fun, sun, and work the Zeta's returned to campus ready to begin a big rush campaign . . . Three rush parties consisted of lots of time spent away from studying . . . The reward was a great and enthusiastic pledge class . . . Zeta Tau Alpha greeted their pledges with a Coke party in the Panhellenic House . . . Informal gatherings throughout the year . . . Valentine party in the Y. M. C. A. . . . Annual 100th Link Ball in the spring . . . Intramurals saw the ZTA's win the field hockey trophy . . . Participation in Homecoming and Greek Week . . . Contributing to CARE . . . Rendering services to the community of High Point . . . State Day was an exciting day for Zeta Tau Alpha because it was held on the High Point College campus . . . Exchange of ideas and experiences . . . Congregating of Zeta's from the United States and Canada for the National Convention . . . Wearing the Zeta badge will encourage the girl to strive for self-discipline and increased maturity . . . Many Editor's Notes begin with the goals that a yearbook staff tried to attain in their publication and end with the hope that the students appreciate their effort; however, I feel that these goals and hopes are of secondary importance. Every staff sets goals and hopes for the best results. I am not saying that we did not have our share of goals, but I feel that the individuals who are a part of the college campus and whose co-operation helps make a yearbook are of more importance to be mentioned.

I would like to thank the many people who helped in the preparation of this ZENITH. My first thank-you goes to the staff members who worked diligently on this edition. I am sure there were times when an afternoon nap or a trip downtown would have been more to their liking; however, most of them felt a great responsibility to the book and worked during what would have been a free afternoon. To Nancy Tabor I would like to give special thanks. Many people are unaware that there is always one person with whom the editor "cusses" and discusses the progress of the publication, and Nancy was that person for me. Her cheerful, and, more than once, consoling words helped me over the "rough times." In addition, I would like to thank the business staff for their excellent work that they did with advertisements. To Bucky Stilwell, I appreciate your patience with the camera which always seemed to "go on the blink" when ten organization pictures were to be taken.

Secondly, I am grateful for the co-operation that I received from the administration, faculty, students, organizations, fraternities and sororities. I do not make a yearbook; your co-operation makes a yearbook.

I sincerely hope that you will enjoy this edition of the ZENITH, and that years from now when you "reminisce," you will find that this book contains many memorable experiences of 1965-1966.
